- Whereas The University Erasmus Regulations, approved by Rector's Decree No. 1901 of 22nd March 2018;
- Considering that this call is subject to the adoption of the ERASMUS+ programme for 2021/2027 as well as the ECHE accreditation for 2021/2027, a selection procedure for the allocation of 8 scholarships for the participation in the mobility experience funded by the Erasmus+ program - call 2024 (2024-1-IT02-KA131-HED-000211587) “Blended Intensive Program (BIP)” titled “Summer School of Nonviolence and Nonviolent Communication. A Path to Building Peace in Challenging Times” (September 2-12, 2025). The winners will be required to participate in the online course (September 2-4) and the in-person module (September 7-12) at the Franciscan Monastery of St. Francis of Assisi (Rovinj, Croatia). This participation will entitle them to achieve 3 CFU/ECTS credits, which are recognized in their study plans according to the regulations of each degree program.

DECREES

Article 1_Admission Requirements

All students are eligible to participate if they meet the following criteria:

- Enrolled for the 2024/2025 academic year in the following Master's degree programs at the University: LM59; LM91; LM51
- To expect to graduate no earlier than October 2025
- To have an English language certificate equivalent to B2 or higher

Article 2_ Selectin criteria

The ranking will be drawn up based on a maximum score of 30 points, according to the following criteria, which must be provided in the application:

- Number of CFU acquired by the closing date of the call (up to 10 points)
- Weighted average grade recorded by the closing date of the call (up to 10 points)

- It will be a preferential criterion not to have previously participated in other mobility experiences abroad or to have been awarded mobility grants abroad during the academic year 25/26 (up to 10 points).

In the event of a tie in the ranking, the younger student will be selected.

Article 3_ Application

The application form (Attachment A), drafted on plain paper and signed in original by the candidate, must be submitted via email to a.babar1@lumsa.it no later than June 3rd, 2025 at 12:00 pm, with the email subject line: “Application for BIP 2025”. Failure to comply will result in exclusion from the selection procedure.

The application (Attachment A) must be submitted with the mandatory attachment of the language certificate as per Article 2.

Article 4_Commission

The Selection Committee, comprising three members (two Professors and one administrative staff member in secretarial functions), will prepare the merit ranking based on the descending order of points awarded to the candidates. The ranking will be published on the following webpage: <https://lumsa.it/it/international/mobilita-per-studenti/blended-intensive-programme>

Article 5_European Union Scholarship for Students Participating in BIP Mobility

EU funding for Erasmus+ study mobility students is considered a scholarship for the additional expenses associated with studying abroad.

Students participating in a Blended Intensive Programme are eligible for an Erasmus+ scholarship of €79 per day for the days of in-person activities at the host university. For example, for 6 days of in-person activities: $€79 \times 6 \text{ days} = €474$

Students are also allocated an additional two days for travel.

Article 6_ Person responsible for the procedure

In accordance with Law No. 241 of August 7, 1990, and subsequent amendments, the person responsible for the procedure outlined in this call is Dr. Claudia Cogoni, Head of the International Relations Office (under the Directorate of Academic Services for Students – Dr. Bruna Marro), Via di Porta Castello 44, 00193 Rome, email: c.cogoni@lumsa.it, Tel. +39 06 68422985.
