

LUMSA
UNIVERSITÀ

DIPARTIMENTO
DI GIURISPRUDENZA, ECONOMIA,
POLITICA E LINGUE MODERNE

This workshop brings together Ph.D. students in Civil Economy at LUMSA and scholars from other institutions to examine the ethical, economic, and philosophical dimensions of the family. Rooted in the tradition of economia civile, which emphasizes relationality, reciprocity, and the common good, the discussions revisit the role of the family as a space of human flourishing.

15 gennaio 2025, ore 10.00

Ph.D room – via Pompeo Magno 28, Roma

Oikonomia: a Doctoral Workshop on Family Economics

SPEAKERS

Matteo Ruberto

The Parenthood Paradox: Penalties, Premiums, and the Hidden Value of Care, SUPSI

Clara Piano

Childcare Regulation and the Fertility Gap, University of Mississippi

Matteo Rizzolli

Family = Happiness? Exploring Both Sides of the Equation, Università LUMSA

Carmine Marcacci

Population ethics: a survey, Università LUMSA

Ennio Emanuele Piano

Duel to the Death: The Medieval Origins of Spousal Consent, University of Mississippi

Emanuele Bracco

Cultural Identity and Norms of Cooperation and Trust in Italy, Università di Verona